Press Release

Indian High Commission donates books to Seri Mulia Sarjana Primary School

As part of celebrations of India@75 “Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav” and its efforts to promote the understanding of India’s rich culture and heritage among the young generation, High Commission of India in Brunei donated 30 books to Seri Mulia Sarjana Primary School on Wednesday, 23 June, 2021.

2. The books cover a wide range of stories generally read by Indian children during their formative years as a part of their growing up. The stories extol and teach human values like honesty, valour, hard work, importance of education and family.

3. High Commissioner of India to Brunei Darussalam Ajaneesh Kumar presented the books to Dr. Mary Lim, Founder and CEO, who was accompanied by Ms. Putri Maharani Simanjuntak, Principal of Seri Mulia Sarjana Primary School.

4. The Seri Mulia Sarjana Primary School expressed its gratitude for the generous donations made by the High Commissioner and said that it will give an opportunity to the school children to learn more about India.
